Additional Information

February 1st – 7th

Participants will be allowed to access the 2020 Great American Outdoor Show (GAOS) 30 minutes prior to opening each morning.

Each participant must have a valid entry ticket to access the GAOS early.

Participants that are minors will be allowed to have an adult accompany them to the archery area (please note, only one adult will be allowed into the GAOS early with a minor and the adult must have a valid ticket).

Participants may use any entrance (McClay Street, Cameron Street or Shooting Sports Entrance) to access the archery area prior to opening.

Participants must have bow in a case prior to entering GAOS early.

February 8th & 9th (Finals)

 Participants competing to qualify for the final Saturday (February 8th) will be allowed to access the 2020 Great American Outdoor Show (GAOS) 30 minutes prior to opening, however they must have a valid entry ticket and must use the Cameron Street Lobby entrance. Adults who accompany minors must also have a valid entry ticket.*

 Participants who have qualified to shoot in the Finals will be allowed to access the 2020 GAOS 30 minutes prior to opening on Saturday and Sunday (February 8th & 9th). They will be admitted for free and their name will be on a list at the Cameron Street Lobby (list will only be at Cameron Street Lobby). One adult will be able to accompany a minor who has qualified for the finals to the archery area for free.*
